Our Communities Our Health

NOVEMBER 7-8 | SUNDAY RIVER RESORT | NEWRY, MAINE

The NEW ENGLAND RURAL HEALTH CONFERENCE

– Transitions in Healthcare is the premiere interdisciplinary networking and educational event in the region. Take advantage of this rare opportunity to support rural health improvement efforts as well as to gain exposure to our attendees.

We are excited to offer over 25 breakout sessions highlighting organizations from every state in New England, including regional and national programs.

Throughout our two days of programming we will feature plenary sessions by regional and national leaders from community-based groups and organizations, rural clinicians, health systems, researchers and community development leaders. Their focus will be on transitions in the healthcare environment as well as transitions in practice.

Top Benefits of Becoming a Vendor/Sponsor:

Targeted connections to 300+ rural health care leaders and advocates.

A partnership between your organization and the region's only interdisciplinary rural health association including our growing number of members from throughout New England.

Access to decision makers from rural hospitals, primary care, oral health, behavioral health, home health and long-term care organizations, professional associations, medical and dental schools.

Exposure to our Federal partners including their regional representatives and staff from the State Offices of Rural Health in CT, MA, ME, NH, RI and VT.

An opportunity to learn about the challenges and opportunities that exist within the rural healthcare marketplace. (There will be multiple breaks and dedicated times for our attendees to connect with you!)

Access to our attendee list including their names, organizations and titles.

Invitation to send potential contributions to our newsletter before and after the conference.
